

Portfolio Media. Inc. | 111 West 19th Street, 5th Floor | New York, NY 10011 | www.law360.com
Phone: +1 646 783 7100 | Fax: +1 646 783 7161 | customerservice@law360.com

Law360's 2021 Cybersecurity & Privacy Editorial Board

Law360 (March 26, 2021, 6:43 PM EDT) -- Law360 is pleased to announce the formation of its 2021 Cybersecurity & Privacy Editorial Advisory Board.

The editorial advisory board provides feedback on Law360's coverage and expert insight on how best to shape future coverage.

The members of Law360's 2021 Cybersecurity & Privacy Editorial Advisory Board are:

Olivia Adendorff, Kirkland & Ellis LLP

Olivia is a litigation partner with broad experience in consumer protection and data privacy, with particular experience in Federal Trade Commission investigations, private litigation and class actions. She defends corporations in a variety of industries, including Fortune 50 technology companies. In addition, Olivia also advises companies on consumer protection compliance concerns.

Kwabena Appenteng, Littler Mendelson PC

Kwabena Appenteng is a shareholder with Littler Mendelson and a core member of the firm's workplace privacy and data security practice group. Kwabena counsels some of the country's largest employers on issues including General Data Protection Regulation compliance, cross-border data transfers, Brazil's data protection law, the California Consumer Privacy Act, Fair Credit Reporting Act, Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act and data breach response.

Aaron R. Cooper, Jenner & Block LLP

Aaron Cooper, special counsel at Jenner & Block, has nearly a decade of public service experience spanning all three branches of the federal government. He is a former lead Senate investigative counsel and U.S. Department of Justice cybercrime prosecutor with broad experience in sensitive government investigations, handling complex legal and cyber issues.

Sheryl A. Falk, Winston & Strawn LLP

As co-leader of Winston's global privacy and data security practice, Sheryl uses her deep technical expertise to counsel clients on evolving privacy regulation, works closely with her clients to protect their critical data, investigates trade secret and data security incidents, and handles data privacy and trade secret litigation.

Alex Iftimie, Morrison & Foerster LLP

Alex Iftimie is co-chair of Morrison & Foerster's global risk and crisis management group. His practice involves advising clients on sensitive cyber and U.S. national security matters, internal investigations and government enforcement actions. Prior to joining MoFo, Alex held senior roles at the DOJ.

Scott Lashway, Manatt Phelps & Phillips LLP

Scott Lashway is the managing partner of Manatt's Boston office and co-leader of Manatt's privacy and cybersecurity practice group. He has established himself as one of the nation's leading cybersecurity and data privacy advisers as well as go-to counsel for significant disputes and investigations.

Romaine Marshall, Armstrong Teasdale LLP

Romaine Marshall is a partner at Armstrong Teasdale helping clients protect their data, businesses and reputations from cybersecurity and data privacy incidents. He has represented clients in response to hundreds of incidents involving data breaches, ransomware, wire fraud and more. Romaine is also an experienced business litigation and trial lawyer.

Edward J. McAndrew, DLA Piper

Ed McAndrew is a cybersecurity and litigation partner at DLA Piper, based in Wilmington, Delaware, and Washington, D.C. He focuses on cyber incident response, internal and governmental investigations, and litigation. He previously served for 10 years as a federal cybercrime prosecutor and national security cyber specialist at the DOJ.

Evan Norris, Cravath Swaine & Moore LLP

Evan Mehran Norris is a partner in Cravath's litigation department and former federal prosecutor. He focuses his practice on advising U.S. and multinational companies, board members and senior executives on government and internal investigations, criminal defense, regulatory compliance and related civil litigation, with particular emphasis on cross-border, multi-jurisdictional investigations.

Karen Neuman, Dechert LLP

Karen Neuman is Dechert's global head of privacy counseling and a partner in the firm's privacy and cybersecurity practice. Between 2013 and 2016, she served as chief privacy officer with the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and was part of the agency's senior leadership team.

Quyen Truong, Stroock & Stroock & Lavan LLP

Quyen T. Truong is an authority on consumer protection, financial regulation, and privacy and data security. She helps financial institutions, investors and e-commerce businesses influence and comply with the law and prevail in bet-the-company proceedings to achieve commercial goals.

Sarah Zhao, Rimon PC

Sarah Zhao has substantial experience international data protection, privacy and cybersecurity. Her counsel includes advising on establishing data protection policies and compliance programs, conducting due diligence on data security for mergers and acquisitions, handling data breaches, and advising on compliance matters related to existing rules and regulations.