Law360's 2023 Massachusetts Editorial Advisory Board

Law360 (June 1, 2023, 8:14 PM EDT) -- Law360 is pleased to announce the formation of its 2023 Massachusetts Editorial Advisory Board.

The editorial advisory board provides feedback on Law360's coverage and expert insight on how best to shape future coverage.

The members of Law360's 2023 Massachusetts Editorial Advisory Board are:

Eugenia M. Carris - U.S. attorney's office

AUSA Eugenia M. ("Genie") Carris is deputy chief of the Public Corruption Unit at the U.S. attorney's office in Boston. An experienced trial lawyer, she also teaches Prosecutorial Ethics and Advanced Evidence at Boston College Law School.

Melissa Nott Davis - Shook Hardy & Bacon LLP

Senior counsel Melissa Nott Davis serves Shook Hardy & Bacon clients in health, consumer goods and technology sectors in high-stakes trials. A rising Boston business litigator with multiple cases set for trial in 2023, she has been named among Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly's "Top Women in Law" and "Up and Coming Lawyer."

Patrick Hanley - Butters Brazilian LLP

Patrick Hanley is a trial lawyer at Butters Brazilian LLP, representing businesses and individuals in connection with government investigations, professional discipline, business disputes and regulatory matters. Immediately prior to joining Butters Brazilian, from 2012-2019, Hanley served as the first chief of gaming enforcement for the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office.

Samia M. Kirmani - Jackson Lewis PC

Samia M. Kirmani is a principal in the Boston office of Jackson Lewis and co-leader of the firm's workplace training group. She concentrates her practice on employment counseling, training, and policy development on behalf of management.

Terence McCourt - Greenberg Traurig LLP

Terence McCourt is co-managing shareholder of Greenberg Traurig's Boston office and chairman of its labor and employment practice. He represents organizations in management-side labor and employment law. Terry previously served as the deputy chief legal counsel to the governor of Massachusetts and as general counsel to the Massachusetts secretary of labor.

Nathaniel Mendell - Morrison Foerster LLP

Nathaniel (Nate) Mendell is a partner in Morrison Foerster's investigations and white collar defense practice group in the Boston office and a former acting U.S. attorney and chief of the Narcotics and Money Laundering Unit in the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Massachusetts.

B. Stephanie Siegmann - Hinckley Allen & Snyder LLP

Leveraging her unique and vast experience as a former Navy JAG and national security prosecutor, B. Stephanie Siegmann, now a litigation partner at Hinckley Allen, defends companies and individuals during government investigations and advises clients on cybersecurity, data privacy, national security, and complex white collar criminal matters.

Mara Theophila - McDermott Will & Emery LLP

A litigation partner in the Boston office of McDermott Will & Emery, Mara Theophila represents clients in a wide variety of high-stakes commercial disputes and government enforcement matters. She regularly represents clients in matters involving the False Claims Act, Anti-Kickback Statute, Stark Law, FCPA, and allegations of financial fraud.
